

Welcome To Córdoba

A city rich in history, culture, and tradition, Córdoba was once one of the largest cities and most influential centers of learning in the Western world. Its origins date back to the 8th-9th century BCE, and it was formally established as a Roman colony in the 2nd century BCE. After the Muslim conquest in the 8th century, Córdoba reached its peak, becoming the capital of the Emirate (756) and later Caliphate of Córdoba (929), from which the Umayyad dynasty ruled over al-Andalus until 1031. Throughout its history, Córdoba has been home to many renowned poets and thinkers, including Lucan, Seneca, Ibn Hazm, Averroes, and Maimonides. The city's unique fusion of Roman, Islamic, Jewish, and Christian influences remains clearly visible today in its stunning architecture and cultural legacy.

Córdoba proudly holds four UNESCO World Heritage designations: the Mezquita-Catedral, the surrounding historic area, the Fiesta de Los Patios, and Medina Azahara. Additionally, like the rest of Spain, it is also recognized for Flamenco and the Mediterranean Diet, both listed as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity

This short guide will provide useful information to help you enjoy your time in Córdoba and explore its landmarks during your stay.

TRAVELING TO AND FROM CÓRDOBA

By Train: Córdoba is well-served by the Spanish high-speed rail network (AVE), which connects it to major cities like Madrid (around 2 hours away), Seville (50 minutes), and Málaga (1 hour). The Central train station is located relatively close to the city center (Plaza de las Tres Culturas, 1.6 km away from Plaza de la Corredera, where the workshop will take place).

By Bus: The Central bus station is right behind the train station.

By Air: Córdoba is conveniently located near two major airports: Seville Airport (SVQ) and Málaga Airport (AGP), both offering a wide range of national and international flights. Both airports are well connected to their respective city centers via public transport and taxis.

From Seville:

- Bus + Train: EA bus from Seville Airport to Seville Santa Justa + AVE train to Córdoba (around 1 hour 30 minutes total).
- Bus + Bus: EA bus from Seville Airport to Plaza de Armas + direct bus to Córdoba (around 2 hours 30 minutes total).
- Rental car: around 1 hour 20/30 minutes.

From Málaga:

- Train + Train: C1 train from Málaga Airport to Málaga María Zambrano + AVE train to Córdoba (around 1 hour 30/50 minutes total).
- Bus + Train: A bus from Málaga Airport to Málaga María Zambrano + AVE train to Córdoba (around 1 hour 30/50 minutes total).
- Rental car: around 1 hour 45 minutes / 2 hours.

For your return trip, be sure to check the train schedules in advance to avoid any surprises, especially if you are planning to catch an early flight:

- Córdoba to Málaga María Zambrano: the earliest train departs at 7:14 AM on weekdays; at 8:50 AM on weekends.
- Córdoba to Seville Santa Justa: the earliest train departs at 6:20 AM on weekdays; at 8:14 AM on weekends.

The workshop will be held in the Sala de Usos Múltiples at the UCOCultura headquarters, located in Plaza de la Corredera, one of Córdoba's most iconic spots and the only rectangular plaza mayor in Andalusia. Built in the 17th century, Plaza de la Corredera has historically hosted major public events, including bullfights and autos-da-fé. Today, it stands as a vibrant hub of social and cultural life, bustling with outdoor terraces, shops, and open-air events.

UCOCULTURA

TOP LOCAL FOODS...

Salmorejo (a cold, thick tomato soup made with bread, garlic, olive oil, and vinegar, typically topped with hard-boiled egg and Iberian ham); Mazamorra (similar to salmorejo, but with almonds as the base instead of tomatoes); Flamenquín (a breaded and fried roll of pork loin wrapped around ham); Rabo de Toro (oxtail stew, slow-cooked with red wine and vegetables); Berenjenas con miel (fried eggplant drizzled with honey); Tortilla de Patatas (a Spanish potato omelette); Pisto Cordobés (a local version of ratatouille, made with peppers, tomatoes, zucchini, and onions, often topped with a fried egg); Pastel Cordobés (traditional pastry made of flaky puff pastry filled with cabello de ángel, a sweet squash filling).

... AND WINES

Córdoba is home to a rich tradition of winemaking, with its vineyards primarily producing Montilla-Moriles wines. Fino (pale, dry 'sherry'), Amontillado (golden, dry, smooth), Oloroso (aged, dark, smooth, dryish), Palo Cortado (between Oloroso and Amontillado), Raya (between Fino and Oloroso), Ruedo (Non-aged fortified white wine), Pedro Ximenex (very dark & sweet)

PLANNING YOUR NEXT STAY

If you enjoyed Córdoba and want to visit again, this time free from academic obligations, consider scheduling your visit during one of the city's vibrant festivals: Semana Santa (Holy Week), Fiesta de los Patios (early May), Cruces de Mayo (also early May), Feria de Córdoba (end of May), Noche Blanca del Flamenco (June).
